

Sketch Your Nonprofit

<https://tinyurl.com/Mission-Exercise>

Tom Tresser - CivicLab
- Problem: Eroding democracy, need to effectively fight for social justice. Mission: to build tools, conduct research, and expand capacity for grassroots democracy and social justice in Chicago.

Gabriel Gutierrez:
Problem: No career direction/mentorship for youth. Mission: Creating a bridge and a fountain of knowledge for the future of the world.

Terrence McGowin Jr.-Horizon-Problem-Underserved children are not aware of what is available to them outside of the tv and the internet. Mission: To provide another perspective to those who seek more Anthony Hudson - Offering Business and financial Education into underserved communities.

Omar Palma - The Lighthouse Project - Problem : lack of support for people with drug problems, backwards laws and education related to drugs.

Mission statement: increasing medical knowledge of thc/psychedelics, education/social support/job, litigation for offenders and introducing the european approach may have issues affording good services or having a safe space. This is where we would come in. To provide a safe haven as well as resources and career training for young adults with untreated mental illnesses to be zach garn problem: public perception of gender and sexuality is misinformed and leaning towards hostility. mission: provide artistic opportunities to queer people to create impact and growth in their community.

Osaze Pettaway - Connect - Problem: Increasingly large social gap between individuals and communities. Mission: Collect data on bias and various disconnects to create solutions

David Carrasco- Finance education- Problem: Lack of knowledge of credit and investment in stocks Mission: to educate underserved communities on financial freedom

Citizenship needs to be granted to everyone that is currently in the United States. Mission: to grant everyone in the country to having a drivers license, EBT benefits and all resources that this great country has to offer. (social security Minority Homes, affecting the way inner city youth grow up and the missed opportunities to be guided in the right direction. Mission: Giving youth a safe place to escape like a community center but with volunteer mentors who will

Problem-Unfair and incompetent policing in black neighborhoods. Mission: To provide resources to those that have been negatively effected by poor policing and to promote the benefits of police reform in

Karla Rowe safe, clean, affordable housing for women and children. Maybe tiny home communities or shipping container homes

Gabe: Problem: No career guidance/mentorship for the youth. Mission: Creating a bridge and ecosystem for the future of the world.

felicia jackson: the name of my charity would be 5loaves and 2 fish .I would focus on bringing food pantries to the south side of Chicago that will work to help bring groceries and other essential items to those in need

Morgan Lawson- Problem: Homelessness Everyone deserves a place to live if not a place to shower. Mission: Provide services for unhoused people to eat, take a shower, and help get them on their feet.