

CivicLab

<https://tinyurl.com/C51-Empathy>

Building Grasp of History - Group 1

Jorge, Jazmin,
Esther,
Bryan

Research non conventional history

Use Wikipedia
to research
(the right way)

listen to oral history projects or start your own oral history project with older relatives or anyone you know that was alive during a period you'd like to know more about.

Join
book clubs

Read and listen from the perspective of the group concerned

Daya, Blaire,
sunday, Elise,
Donnae, Jesus

talk to your older
family members
that lived through it and ask them about their thoughts and how it affected
them

i.c.stars | *

<https://tinyurl.com/C51-Empathy>

Building Grasp of History - Group 2

Activities one might do to increase and upgrade our comprehension of History/Context?

Read books written by people in that culture.

LISTEN TO INDIGENOUS

talk with an older person of color and ask them about the oppression they have experienced before

Pressure
oppressors to return stolen artifacts with lost historical value

visits museums

listen to marginalized people

read more social studies and civil books about people history

Start
clubs

Speak to people who have lived through those experiences.
Some things told in history books didn't happen too long ago and those people can still be alive.

find out what certain laws said
and what they did,
when it comes to segregation and oppression

Thorough Research

listen to old
marginalized
people

Watch Documentaries

Building Grasp of History - Group 3

Angel Tac
Devon
Cordell

record
history

engage in a community
event

get the point of views from the other side

ask question to those who are more closely related to the events

non-traditional history books

<https://tinyurl.com/C51-Empathy>

Building Grasp of History - Group 4

Conversate more on the topic	educating yourself more on the topic/s	Bring historian to a workshop to speak about the subject	Share Documentaries on the topic
Empower and listening to indigenous orders	Share articles that are about the topic	Create systems to reserve the history	engage in events to celebrate the culture
Use social media as a platform to spread more info on the topic	Creating presentations on the topic	Make sure to hear from those with the unique experience	Maximizing the power of the mass media

- Nick
- Mike
- Anthony
- Rachel
- Gio

"Civics 101"

i.c.stars | *

CivicLab

<https://tinyurl.com/C51-Empathy>

The CivicLab logo consists of a circular emblem containing a blue Erlenmeyer flask with a flame above it. To the right of the emblem, the text "Civics 101" is written in a red, cursive font. Below this, a red rectangular box contains the text "i.c.stars | *" in white. Underneath the box, the word "CivicLab" is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font, and a URL is provided below that.

Building Grasp of History - Group 5

Anyone in Group 5?